9-Year Report on Purple Martin

My purple martins took off Sunday on their migration to South America.

I have two 12-nest aluminum boxes in "The Back 40," game refuge behind my house—new ones this year replacing the original redwood boxes—and the new ones did a land-office business. Until Sunday. The boxes were silent Sunday, and the same Monday and this morning. So the martins are gone for the season.

Yours may still be around—but not for long.

Martins feed on insects, so they go where the insects are: Four months here, four months in South America, and four months on the roundtrip down the coast of Mexico.

Here is the 9-year record of arrivals and departures at my martin boxes:

1963 — March 21 — July 17
1964 — March 14 — July 4
1965 — March 6 — July 12
1966 — March 15 — July 4
1967 — March 29 — July 15
1968 — March 18 — July 4
1969 — Feb. 22 — July 5
1970 — Feb. 10 — July 3
1971 — Feb. 26 — July 11

Russian Freighter Sinks

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — The rescue co-ordination center says a 275-foot Russian freighter sank in Pryce Channel at the mouth of Toba Inlet just before midnight Monday.

A spokesman said 14 crewmen were taken off the vessel by the fishpacker Delta and ferries to Vancouver, 100 miles to the southeast. He said it was believed all on board got off.

One crewman suffered a possible broken leg.

Details of the sinking were not immediately available. The spokesman said the center was attempting to line up an interpreter to meet the Delta when it docks at Steveston, 10 miles south of Vancouver. None of the Russian seamen on the freighter spoke enough English to tell the center what happened.

Remarks Were Premature

ROGERS, Ark. (AP) — State Sen. Jim Caldwell of Rogers said Monday that a recent statement made by political analyst Jim Ranchino of Arkadelphia was made before Ranchino analyzed the facts.

Caldwell's remark referred to a statement by Ranchino that he did not feel there has been any such thing as the Republican party in the state in the past.

Ranchino, who will be working for Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., this summer, said in a recent interview with the Associated Press that he saw the GOP as a group of people, several "reform" Democrats, clustered around former Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

"When a Democratic political analyst states that the Republican party is a band of reform-minded Democrats clustered around a personality, he has failed to analyze the facts," Caldwell said.

Caldwell said he found it "reassuring" that Ranchino, "in analyzing the Republican party, finds its members reform-minded."

Venolation Valve Check

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Dale Bumpers has directed the State Police to include in its motor vehicle inspection program a check of the crankcase ventilation valve.

The valves are designed to prevent gaseous emissions from automobile crankcases.

A check of the valve was requested by the Arkansas Pollution Control Commission.

Man Found Guilty, Gets 18 Years

The following sentences were fixed in Hempstead County Circuit Court Monday:

Earl Eugene Murphy—assault with intent to kill Jimmy Adkins (February, 1971). Found guilty by the jury and sentenced to 21 years in prison. In April Murphy entered a plea of guilty for robbery and was sentenced to 18 years in prison. The two terms are to run consecutively and the jury has recommended that he serve at least one-third of his time before he is eligible for parole.

Lee D. Armstrong—forgery and uttering (Nov. and Dec. 1970). Armstrong entered a plea of guilty and was sentenced to two years in prison.

Morocco Has Executed 10 Officers

RABAT, MOROCCO (AP) — The government announced today 10 army officers have been executed in connection with the attempt to overthrow the monarchy of King Hassan II.

A communique said all were executed this morning but reliable Moroccan sources said some of them—including three generals—were shot at sunrise on Monday.

The leader of the coup, Gen. Mohamed Medbouh, was shot by his own men at the site of a five-hour bloodbath at the king's summer palace at Skhirat, 15 miles south of Rabat, on Saturday.

Some 1,400 rebel troops held the king and the guests at his 42nd birthday party prisoner for several hours and systematically executed many of the king's trusted advisers.

It was apparently Medbouh's death which led to the collapse of the coup.

Hassan began a crackdown on persons suspected of sympathizing with the rebels. A number of officers were arrested, Moroccan sources said, and a massive search was on for fugitive suspects.

The roundup was launched after "intensive interrogation" of the ringleaders, including three generals who were executed Monday.

The number of arrests was not immediately disclosed, but it was clear that far more officers were involved in the plot than the "approximately 10" reported earlier.

Army units took control of the port of Casablanca, the nation's largest harbor, and screened and searched all passengers. Strict controls remained in force at airports and frontier posts to prevent fugitives from escaping the country.

Bread May Keep You Alive But the Butter Makes It More Tasty

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — There is a saying that flattery will get you nowhere.

That may be true in hell, where promotion is slow, but it is certainly untrue on earth. This is a place where bread may keep you alive but it is the butter on it that makes the taste memorable.

Flattery is as necessary to the common run of men as medals are to pin medals on each other whether they really deserve them or not. The rest of us like to pin kind words on each other whether they're true or not.

Flattery may strain your sense of fantasy, but it isn't much of a strain on your vocabulary. Here, for example, are a few admiring phrases which, if learned well and used often enough, should take you from the warrens of the poor to

Half Million Telephone Workers Are Set to Go on Strike Wednesday

50 Arrests in Florida Race Riot

FORT MYERS, Fla. (AP) — About 50 people were arrested and a curfew clamped on parts of Fort Myers Monday night after roving bands of black youths threw rocks and fire-bombs in a Negro section, authorities said.

Dunbar Heights was quiet early today, said Lee County Sheriff's Capt. Ted Smith and Fort Myers Police Capt. Morgan House.

The only injury reported was to a child, Annette Busbee, 2½, who was treated at Lee Memorial Hospital after being hit in the face by a rock thrown into her father's car. Douglas Busbee was driving through the area, authorities said.

Smith said those taken into custody were being processed to determine charges. He said "approximately 50" persons were arrested.

"There were some shots fired but we haven't determined if they were shooting at anybody in particular," Smith said. "Some firecrackers went off and this led some people to believe there were shots fired."

"We can't say one way or another yet."

House said a Fort Myers police car was hit by what police believed to be a bullet from a .22 caliber weapon. No authorities were injured, he said.

Trouble started around 9 p.m. and the curfew was called at 10:15 p.m. Firemen extinguished blazes at two stores in the black section, authorities said.

A group of young blacks broke into Davis Gun Sales and took several weapons, House said.

Sheriff Flanders Thompson said there was minor trouble 20 hours earlier when youths broke some windows in the Dunbar section.

Smith said blacks are being interviewed to determine the cause of the disturbance. "We have good relations here," he said.

Embezzeler Gets 2 Years

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — John T. Banks, 26, of Trumann was sentenced to two years in jail, with all but six months of the sentence suspended, after pleading guilty Monday to a charge of embezzling $2,000 from the First National Bank of Jonesboro.

U.S. District Court Judge G. Thomas Eisele gave Banks until noon Monday to report to the U.S. Marshal's office at Little Rock to begin serving his sentence.

Banks was charged in April on information brought by the FBI.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Bell Telephone System today announced it would sweeten its contract offer in a last-minute attempt to keep half a million employees from walking off the job Wednesday morning.

The company said terms of the improved offer would be made public after they were formally presented to union bargaining teams sometime later in the day.

Earlier President Joseph A. Beirne, of the AFL-CIO Communications Workers of America, said that on raw money issues "I'd say we are apart by maybe one per cent..."

A company spokesman said later he saw this as a heartening indication that some last-minute settlement might be reached.

The telephone situation comes atop a six-week-old nationwide telegraph shutdown and coincides with threatened localized rail and mail tie-ups. Meanwhile the United Tele-

Plain of Jars in Hands of Tribesmen

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The army of Meo tribesmen trained and equipped by the U.S. Central Intelligence Agency has seized virtually complete control of the Plain of Jars in eastern Laos and encountered no significant resistance from Communist forces, American sources in Vientiane reported today.

Except for five months in 1969, the Plain of Jars has been held by North Vietnamese and Pathet Lao forces since 1964.

American sources who arrived in Vientiane from the plain 100 miles north of the Laotian capital said Meo command teams have covered most of the area in search of enemy supplies and uncovered large underground food stores, including canned pork, condensed milk, coffee and candy.

Very little munitions were found, however.

The Meo army is led by Gen. Vang Pao. For years he has launched offensives in the monsoon season to strengthen his positions against the attacks which the North Vietnamese make during the dry season beginning in November. Usually the Meo forces advance in the wet season and are pushed back during the dry months.

The drive this year began last week.

Officials in Vientiane said they expect Vang Pao's men to attempt to hold the Plain of Jars although they have not yet prepared permanent defensive positions. They have established artillery bases on hillsides in the plain, sources said, and some of them are reportedly manned by Thai troops financed by the U.S. government.

The sources said American helicopters and C123 transport planes are ferrying troops and supplies into Xiangkhoang airfield in the center of the plain.

U.S. B52 heavy bombers and fighter-bombers are reported attacking enemy supply routes including Route 7 leading from North Vietnam to the Plain of Jars.

Ripon Group to Organize

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An organizational meeting of the Arkansas chapter of the Ripon Society, a 12-chapter Republican research and policy-making group, will be held here July 18, according to Tom Dillard, who is directing organization of the local group.

Dillard said Daniel Swillinger, national political director of the Ripon Society, will be at the meeting. Swillinger, 28, was formerly on the campaign staff of Sen. Charles Mathias, R-Md.

Draft Issue Is Again Delayed

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional efforts to hammer out a bill resuming the draft have been interrupted for a week, pending a hoped-for statement from Defense Secretary Melvin R. Laird.

"We must have a draft-extension bill for the security of this country," Sen. John C. Stennis, chairman of the Armed Services Committee, said Monday in announcing the delay.

"I want to talk to Mr. Laird about the bill—and how badly he needs the bill, frankly."

Stennis said he hopes a statement from Laird will help muster Senate strength to break a draft-bill deadlock arising from an amendment urging U.S. withdrawal from Vietnam within nine months.

House conferees led by Armed Services Chairman F. Edward Hebert, D-La., refuse to accept Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield's nine-month deadline, approved by the Senate 57 to 42 and rejected by the House 219 to 178.

Antiwar senators have vowed to filibuster if the advisory date is removed—and Mansfield is remaining noncommittal on whether he would give his essential backing to cutting off a filibuster.

In a partial breakthrough, House conferees agreed to accept Mansfield's amendment calling for negotiation of total U.S. troop withdrawal in return for release of U.S. prisoners.

But Hebert said House negotiators want the amendment to be declared "a sense of Congress" not a "policy of the United States" as originally worded. He also said they will accept no deadline.

"The House stands very firm against the word date," Hebert said, "in any manner, shape or form."

Hot, Humid for Next Few Days

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Hot and humid conditions with generally fair skies are forecast for Arkansas for the next few days, with only widely scattered thundershowers expected.

High temperatures are predicted to range from the mid 90s to the 100-degree mark. Lows should be in the 70s.

Only a few thundershowers developed Monday afternoon over the eastern sections of the state as drier air moved in from the west during the day. The drying was quite apparent in the air mass above the ground, but the surface humidity remained high.

Afternoon highs Monday were several degrees above those recorded Sunday in most sections. Harrison showed a 10-degree rise from 83 to 93 due to the decreasing in cloudiness and precipitation. Fayetteville was the coolest spot in the state with 92 for a high, while Texarkana reached a hot 102 degrees.

Worker Killed in Little Rock

Alexander, in his early 30s, was dead on arrival at a Malvern hospital. A spokesman said Alexander was using an electric drill on the roof of a building when a short in the drill caused him to fall.

Hanoi Drive for World Sympathy Gets Cold Shoulder From the U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States has given the cold shoulder to a new campaign apparently mounted by Hanoi to convince the world the seven-point Viet Cong peace plan contains elements for serious negotiations.

Since they made their proposal in Paris July 1 the Communist negotiators and their leaders in Hanoi have kept in the limelight with interviews and speeches claiming there is more to their plan than a promise to release American prisoners if the United States sets a withdrawal date by the end of the year.

The newest development came in reports the North Vietnamese would accept an independent, neutral government in

Iceland Wants Americans to Go Home

By ROBERT LINDSAY
Associated Press Writer

REYKJAVIK, Iceland (AP) — All parties in Iceland's incoming leftist government are reported agreed that the NATO base at Keflavik must be closed and that its 3,000 American servicemen must go, probably within four years.

The new coalition to govern this island republic in the North Atlantic appears convinced that Iceland should remain a member of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, but that foreign servicemen should not be stationed here during peacetime.

The base, 30 miles southwest of Reykjavik, and the stationing of American naval personnel there are authorized by a U.S.-Icelandic defense pact under NATO auspices.

The base has been operating since 1951. Located nearly halfway between New York and Moscow, it tracks Soviet plane and ship movements in the North Atlantic. The Russians have been pressuring the Icelandic Government for some time to pull out of NATO, or at least to close the base.

The new coalition under Premier-Elect Olafur Johannesson controls 32 of the parliament's 60 seats, including 17 Progressives, 10 members of the Communist People's Alliance and five of the Liberal Left party. Johannesson leads the Progressive party.

It is likely that the Cabinet will be made up of three Progressives, two Communists and two Liberal Left.

Chief Peace Talker in Paris to Quit

By FRANK CORMIER
Associated Press Writer

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — Sources at the Western White House said today "there has been some discussion" about the possible resignation of David K.E. Bruce as chief U.S. peace negotiator in Paris. But they said, "There's been by no means a final decision."

If the veteran diplomat should resign, administration sources reported, his likely replacement would be William Porter, U.S. ambassador to South Korea.

This advice was forthcoming as Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, Nixon's chief adviser on national security affairs, flew here for a morning meeting with the President on his secrecy-shrouded trip around the world associated closely with a new Viet Cong peace proposal.

Kissinger conferred with Bruce in Paris on Sunday. The National Broadcasting Co. and the Washington Post reported Monday night that Bruce would resign within days and be replaced by Porter.

The best information available in San Clemente and it appeared to be authoritative, was that no change of American leadership at the Paris talks would come quite that quickly. However, rumors that the 73-year-old Bruce would resign have been current for several weeks.

The Post quoted administration sources as saying that Philip C. Habib, the No. 2 negotiator at the talks also will leave Paris. The Post said Habib will replace Porter as envoy to Seoul.

Porter, 56, was deputy ambassador to South Vietnam from September 1965 until mid-1967, when he went to Korea. Before serving in Saigon, he was U.S. consul general in Algiers and became the first American ambassador there when Algeria won its independence from France.

Porter was born in England, became an American citizen in 1936 and entered the State Department's foreign service in 1937.

Kissinger, flying here nonstop from Paris, according to the Western White House, was to land at the El Toro Marine Air Station, a quick helicopter flight away from Nixon's West Coast office.

The globe-trotting foreign policy aide was to meet Nixon and Secretary of State William P. Rogers at 11 a.m.

Kissinger's trip, while it attracted attention from the moment it was announced last month, took on potentially added significance when, two days later, the Viet Cong advanced a seven-point blueprint for ending American involvement in Vietnam. It proposed roughly simultaneous withdrawal of all U.S. military forces and release of Americans held prisoner in North and South Vietnam.

From that moment, the White House insisted the Kissinger trip to Saigon, Bangkok, Paris and points between had been arranged well in advance of any knowledge of a fresh Vietnam peace maneuver.

Marine Says Training No Rose Garden

By WILLIAM L. CHAZE
Associated Press Writer
PARRIS ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — "This is no rose garden."

That's how Maj. Gen. Carl W. Hoffman describes the Marine Corps Recruit Training Depot on this palmetto-fringed island on the South Carolina coast.

Few of the more than 4,000 recruits in boot training here would quarrel with the assessment offered by Hoffman, who took over in May as commanding general.

Thirty-nine young Leathernecks were hospitalized July 3 with kidney problems blamed on excessive exercise ordered by a drill instructor.

The recruits told a Marine investigating officer the drill instructor exercised them up to 15 minutes at a time on several occasions over a 36-hour period. The exercise broke down muscle tissues and affected the kidneys.

Regulations prohibit the exercising of a recruit during the first two weeks of training for longer than five minutes at a time, with a 30-second rest required halfway through. The recruits had been training two days when they were hospitalized.

The drill instructor has been assigned other duties, away from recruit training, and Co. Theodore Metzger, head of the recruit training regiment here, says the DI probably will face punitive action.

Metzger expects most of the recruits to return to duty but some may be discharged.

The incident stirred unhappy memories of a 1956 tragedy in which six recruits drowned in one of the island's tidal creeks. A drill instructor, deciding his platoon needed extra discipline, had taken the recruits on an unauthorized night march.

Largely because of the drownings, the Marine Corps today is highly sensitive to charges that drill instructors are allowed to mistreat recruits under the guise of training.

The Marine Corps says the death march resulted in more controls and restrictions being placed on DIs. Those controls and restriction are in effect today, Hoffman said, but boot training remains otherwise almost the same.

Recruits at Parris Island, one of two such depots run by the Marines, put in 16-hour days filled with the sound of shouting drill instructors wearing Smokey-the-bear felt hats and with constant marching on asphalt parade grounds.

Woman Heads Patent Office

WASHINGTON (AP) — Brereton Sturtevant, the first woman to be nominated examiner-in-chief of the U. S. Patent Office, says she hopes to disprove any idea that women think differently than men in professional situations.

If her nomination by President Nixon is confirmed by the Senate, she will serve on a quasi-judicial board that considers appeals of rejected applications for patents.

CBS Contempt Case Sure to Make History

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Certain to make history however it decides, the House of Representatives was offered the choice today of either holding CBS in contempt or rejecting the recommendation of a committee chairman.

The issue is a contempt citation against the Columbia Broadcasting System and its president, Frank Stanton, for refusing to surrender to the House Commerce Committee material used in making the CBS documentary, "The Selling of the Pentagon."

The film was critical of military public relations activities, but the information demanded was raw material not telecast in the finished program.

While committee Chairman Harley O. Staggers, D-W.Va., insisted the panel's contempt vote of 25 to 13 was not a challenge to the 1st Amendment's free-speech and free-press guarantees, CBS took a different view.

"The people," Staggers said, "must be assured that what they are viewing on their television screens is true and accurate. If you deny Congress the right to inquire into this, the public's last recourse is gone."

It is the first citation ever sought by a congressional committee against a segment of the broadcast media.

CBS contended the requested, but unused, film takes are in the same category as a news reporter's notes and thereby are protected by the 1st Amendment.

Professional associations and groups representing all segments of journalism have expressed concern over the committee's recommendation and its possible impact on freedom of the press.

Opponents already have cited the historic practice within the Congress itself of allowing members to revise, edit or alter their own remarks before publication in the Congressional Record.

House rules provide for one hour of debate on the question of turning the citation over to the Justice Department for consideration.

Conviction on the contempt charge carries a maximum penalty of a year in prison and a $1,000 fine.

BARBIE WATSON AND JUDY REYENGA

Hope Lion's held their first luncheon meeting for the new year with newly elected president Harry Cagle presiding, Monday at the Town & Country.

Program Chairman, James Morrow, presented two young ladies, Judy Reyenga, and Barbie Watson, who are members of the First Baptist Church Youth Choir, who have recently returned from a missionary trip to a Navaho Indian Reservation.

Jim Hart, minister of music

near Gallup, New Mexico.

The girls were among some sixty five persons who went to the reservation and conducted three Bible Schools while there.

The group took the church bus, a large panel truck, and several pickup trucks.

The group took their own camping equipment which included a large church assembly tent, a cook tent, ten tents for sleeping and a 650 gallon water tank mounted on a trailer.

Jim Hart, minister of music and education, and Jim Browning of the youth group preached during the assembly sessions.

The speakers said that all the heat and dust inconveniences were of no importance since forty three Indian children made professions of faith in Jesus Christ.

Guests were Bill Watson, Hope; Mrs. David (Esther) Still, Hope; and Bro. Truman Spring of Amarillo, Texas.

ITHACA, N.Y. (AP) — Dr. Frank Rosenblatt, 43, associate professor of neurobiology at Cornell University, died in a boating accident in Maryland Sunday. University officials said Monday night.

Informers Reporting Drug Pushers

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — A "Turn in a Pusher" program has attracted 2,930 calls from tipsters since it began operating less than six months ago.

Informers remain anonymous and are paid for tips that lead to conviction of drug pushers.

The Greater Tampa Chamber of Commerce and businesses which contributed funds began the TIP bounty system for this city of 318,000 in February.

James Cusack, a former FBI agent who developed the idea and is director of the program, says 37 persons have been arrested and three convicted as a result of TIP information. In addition, police says they are watching 262 suspects named by informants.

Informants call their tips into a secret office manned by civilians and get from $100 to $500 in cash for information that leads to a conviction.

Strict anonymity is enforced. The callers are warned not to give their names and are assigned a code name instead.

A total of $1,000 has been paid to four persons. The amounts are set by a TIP committee, which considers the extent of a pusher's activities and the age group he was dealing with.

Once a pusher is convicted, the reward money awaits another call from the code-named informant.

Cash is placed in an envelope, Cusack said in an interview, and "we make arrangements for the delivery. We Sponsoring businesses have contributed $7,900 for rewards.

Information received from a tipster goes directly to Tampa police or the Hillsborough County sheriff's department.

"People are great," Cusack said. "It's amazing what people will do for a small count of money. Some cops even believe mothers will turn in their kids for the right price."

"BRAVE LITTLE TAILOR"

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. MICHAEL STEPHENS

The wedding of Miss Daisy Nell Price, daughter of Mrs. Virgil S. Price of North Little Rock and the late Mr. Price, to Michael Joseph Stephens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip C. Stephens of Blevins, was solemnized at 8 p.m. July 9 in the Rose City Beacon United Methodist Church of North Little Rock.

The Rev. Charles Watt, pastor of the church, officiated at the ceremony. Candles were lighted by Miss Sharon Heffington, niece of the bride, and Miss Cindy Franklin, both of North Little Rock. Music was furnished by Mrs. Felix Thompson, organist, and Felix Thompson, soloist, of Little Rock.

Marvin Heffington of North Little Rock, brother-in-law of the bride, gave her in marriage. The bride wore a floor-length gown of white organza over taffeta designed with an Empire bodice of Alencon lace trimmed with satin ribbon, a portrait neckline and pointed sleeves. Nylon and net overlay in three tiers made her train. Her headpiece of tulle was secured to a band of stephanotis, and she carried a white bible topped with white carnations, stephanotis and a white orchid.

Miss Rhonda Heffington of North Little Rock, niece of the bride, was her maid of honor. She wore a street-length dress of blue crepe fashioned with an Empire bodice, an eyelet overlay and organza sleeves.

Paul Stephens of Blevins served his brother as best man. Ushers were Marshall Smith of North Little Rock and Harry

Mrs. R.L. Wommack of Fayetteville, and for Miss Holder's grandmother, Mrs. Emma Hatley of Hope.

A wedding bell cloth of white net covered the serving table, and pink carnations, white mums and Queen Anne's lace formed the centerpiece. Heart-shaped pastries, sweet rolls and other assorted tid bits were served for refreshments to about 50.

The hostesses were Mesdames Dick Moore, Andy Andrews, Louis Kalin, H.C. Whitworth and W.C. Bramlett. They were assisted in dispensing hospitality by Mrs. Bob Kellam, Mrs. Bill Fuller, and Misses Angela, Kristi, and Diane Kellam.

Circle No. 1 of W.S.C.S. Meets
Circle number one of W.S.C.S. met in the home of Mrs. John Wilson. Mrs. Albert Graves, leader, called the meeting to order and Mrs. Tom Watson gave the opening prayer. This was followed by roll call and collection of dues by Mrs. C.V. Nunn, acting treasurer. Routine business was conducted.

Mrs. Graydon Anthony gave the program and her subject was "The Upper Room." She also presented the devotional Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. W.E. Trotter served refreshments to the 21 members. The circle will not meet in August.

In 1960 an Arizona rancher wrote a $500 check on a 6 by 3 foot combine Huchingson, Jr. of Little Rock. For the wedding and the reception which followed in the Chandler Room of the church, Mrs. Price, mother of the bride, wore a blue knit ensemble with matching accessories, and Mrs. Stephens, mother of the bridegroom, wore a yellow crepe dress with matching accessories. Each had a white orchid.

After a brief trip to northern Arkansas, Mr. and Mrs. Stephens are at home in Little Rock where he is Assistant Auditor at the Commercial National Bank and she is Assistant Cashier at the Union National Bank.

Bench May Give Up All-Stars

By LARRY PALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Johnny Bench says if his ailing left wrist doesn't improve by game-time he will concede his National League All-Star catching job to Pittsburgh's Manny Sanguillen, who "deserves to start."

Bench, young superstar catcher from the Cincinnati Reds, was voted to the starting spot in nationwide balloting by the fans. However, his statistics are far below those of last year while, Sanguillen is having his third consecutive outstanding season.

"It came around a little today," Bench said Monday of the injury. "If it doesn't feel better tomorrow I wouldn't want to hurt the chances of the National League. Sanguillen is having a better year and in a sense deserves to start."

"They (reporters) have been saying he's No. 2 behind me, but Manny has been a good, steady catcher. Why last year he batted .325 and drove in 61 runs and now he is hitting .319."

Last year, Bench, at 22, became the youngest player ever to win the NL's Most Valuable Player award. He led the major leagues in home runs with 45 and in runs-batted-in with 148. His batting average was .293.

But so far this season the muscular backstop's batting average is down to .250 for the floundering but defending NL champion Reds. His home run count is at 18 and his RBI total is not overwhelming at 37.

Sanguillen is in his third full season in the majors. The 27-year-old from Panama hit .303 in 1969 with 57 RBI. This season, to go with his .319 average, he has already driven in 48 runs. The six-foot, 193-pounder, who was second in the voting has a lifetime mark of .310 going into this year.

It is Bench's fourth All-Star game while Sanguillen is making his debut.

Teaching in School of Hard Knocks

NEW YORK (AP) — A couple of scholars in the school of hard knocks gave in-ring lessons in Madison Square Garden. First school teacher Danny McAloon won a 10-round middleweight fight, then Dave Vasquez, a small college student, took a 12-round bantamweight bout.

"I wanted to teach him right away to expect to get hit," said McAloon, a physical education instructor at a New York boys school who came out swinging and hardly ever stopped in pounding out a unanimous decision over Donato Paduano of

30th Annual All-Star Game Night

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
There have been some historic home runs over the years in baseball's All-Star games and tonight's classic in Detroit marks the 30th anniversary of one of the most dramatic.

It was in July 1941 that Ted Williams of the Boston Red Sox came up in the ninth inning with two on, two out and the Americans trailing the Nationals 5-4.

He wallopped a 2-1 pitch from Claude Passeau of the Chicago Cubs into the upper right field stands at Briggs Stadium for a three-run homer. That one swing of his mighty bat turned defeat into a 7-5 victory for the Americans.

Williams, now manager of the Washington Senators, went on that year to become the last .400 hitter in the major leagues. He finished the 1941 season with a .406 average.

The legendary Babe Ruth of the New York Yankees hit a two-run homer to give the Americans a 4-2 victory in the very first All-Star game or the Midseason Interleague game, as it was then called. That was in 1933 at Comiskey Park in Chicago.

Seventeen years later in the same park in 1950, home runs by Ralph Kiner of Pittsburgh and Red Schoendienst of St. Louis pulled out a 4-3 victory for the Nationals in 14 innings, the first extra inning All-Star game.

Stan Musial, famed St. Louis Cardinal slugger, socked a home run in the 12th inning to give the National a 6-5 victory in the 1955 game at Milwaukee.

Johnny Callison of Philadelphia made the headlines with a three-run homer in the ninth inning that gave the Nationals a 7-4 victory in the 1964 game at Shea Stadium in New York.

HOPE (ARK.) STAR, Printed by Offset

It was another homer, this one by Cincinnati's Tony Perez, that gave the Nationals a 2-1 triumph in 15 innings in 1967 at Anaheim, Calif.

Life More Serious for Ali Now

By MICHAEL A. LUTZ
Associated Press Sports Writer
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Muhammad Ali, who as Cassius Clay used to shout "I am the greatest" to all who would listen, lay on his training table and stared at the Astrohall ceiling.

The gregarious, youthful exuberance of another time was gone. Ali is older now, quieter, more reflective.

"Life is a series of states, like the seasons," Ali said almost dreamily. "In the summer the trees are green and full of leaves. I'm going through another stage."

"When I first came along and got some money, a new Cadillac was the first thing I wanted. That was the most important thing to me."

"In every state of development different things are the most important. At one time, a certain toy is the most valuable thing in a child's life. In another stage, the child will throw the toy away."

"After the Cadillac, I wanted a mansion and I have that too. Now all my desires have been satisfied. So what used to give me pleasure doesn't give pleasure anymore."

What Ali was saying was he's getting tired of fighting. It's not a game anymore and it's no longer fun. He's marching to a different drummer.

"I'm looking to defeat poverty, slavery and injustice," he said. "These are greater things than winning a fight."

"I'm looking for security. I don't want a Cadillac now, I want a housing project."

Fighting is just a job now, Ali

AL Win Rests With Vida Blue

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — It's the Vida Blue smoke against the Dock Ellis spark tonight in baseball's 42nd All-Star Game.

The hard-throwing Blue, talk of the majors with 17 victories halfway through the season, hopes to help pitch the crestfallen American League out of an embarrassing eight-game losing streak against the Nationals, who will be dealing the controversial, hot-tempered Ellis.

Blue and Ellis match up at 8:15 p.m., EDT, before a raucous crowd of 53,634 at ancient Tiger Stadium while 50 million more watch on national television.

"I'm really glad to be here, I only hope I can help the American League break this streak," said Blue, Oakland's baby-faced, 21-year-old southpaw who never saw an All-Star Game in person.

While Blue was an obvious choice to start because of his unparalleled 17-3 record, Ellis wasn't so sure he'd draw the prestigious starting assignment despite his 14-3 mark. In fact, he criticized National League Manager Sparky Anderson last week, saying he wouldn't start because "Anderson doesn't like me."

The Pittsburgh right-hander also said Anderson would never allow two black men to start the game—and since Blue is a Negro—"they wouldn't pitch two brothers against each other."

"Ellis is just a young boy, having some fun," Anderson volleyed back at a news conference Monday. "He doesn't mean to hurt anybody. And I certainly wouldn't stop anyone pitching for me just because of what he says about me."

Ellis, the Pirates' power pitcher who helped them establish a 10-game spread in the National League East prior to the All-Star break, will be backed by a lineup of fencebusters as the favored senior circuit tries to boost its 23-17-1 edge in the mid-summer showdown.

The first hitters in the NL cast have totaled 111 home runs and 336 runs batted in—center-fielder Willie Mays of San Francisco; right-fielder Hank Aaron of Atlanta; St. Louis third baseman Joe Torre; Pittsburgh left-fielder Willie Stargell; first baseman Willie McCovey of San Francisco and catcher Johnny Bench of Cincinnati.

Chicago Cubs' second baseman Glenn Beckert, New York Mets' shortstop Bud Harrelson and Ellis round out the starting lineup.

"I know we've got some pretty good personnel, and none of our reserves will hurt us, either," said Anderson, who pointed out he was here "for a victory—this isn't a vacation, you know."

With the headline-making Blue on the mound, and some hard-throwing pitchers in reserve—like Jim Palmer and Mike Cuellar of Baltimore and Mickey Lolich of Detroit—American League Manager Earl Weaver has a host of strong arms to try to silence the power-stacked National.

"I think they can match anyone coming out of a bullpen," said Weaver. "In a one-game affair like this—just give me the strongest arms."

"If things go as planned, I'll use Palmer, Cuellar and Lolich two innings apiece after Blue goes the first three."

Norm Cash, the starting American League first baseman since top vote-getter Boog Powell is hurt, is one of three replacements for the injury drained junior circuit.

Cash provided some controversy last week when he announced that Weaver wouldn't choose him for the squad because the Baltimore skipper "had other guys who could play first base as well as their regular positions."

He also said he didn't like to play in an All-Star game unless he was the top choice, but relented to play in Detroit since it is his home town.

Weaver said he hadn't spoken to cash since his comment but would "have a long, serious talk just before the game to straighten things out."

Centerfielder Bobby Murcer of the New York Yankees will be in injured Tony Oliva's spot and Detroit's Bill Freehan will be catching for Cleveland's Ray Fosse, who claimed he couldn't lift a bat.

"Fosse came to me with tears in his eyes and said he wanted to play in this game more than anything in the world," said Weaver. "He wanted to — but he couldn't. He's a hell of a competitor."

Weaver's lineup includes Minnesota second baseman Rod Carew in the lead off spot, followed by Murcer; Boston left fielder Carl Yastrzemski; Baltimore right fielder Frank Robinson; Cash; third baseman Brooks Robinson of Baltimore; Freehan, shortstop; Luis Aparicio of Boston and Blue.

Despite the latter-day shift in the balance of power as the National League wiped out an early 12-4 edge taken by the Americans, Anderson isn't so sure that his is the stronger league.

"I'll wait to tell you after tomorrow night if we're the better league," said Anderson.

"And I sure hate to see Brooks Robinson again," he added referring to Robinson's great third base play that helped the Orioles wipe out his Reds in the 1970 World Series.

Americans cash some 22 billion checks a year.

Vida Blue Carries Lucky Coins

DETROIT (AP) — When Vida Blue, Oakland's sensational young left-hander, winds up for the first pitch in tonight's 42nd annual All-Star baseball game, he'll try not to let the three dimes jingling in his hip pocket distract him.

Blue, the 22-year-old fire-baller who has won 17 games in just half a season, was named Monday by Manager Earl Weaver to start for the AL. He always works with a pair of 1971 dimes in his pocket and the 20 cents represent one penny for every victory Vida wanted before this season began.

"Just say it's a little superstition of mine," said Blue. The Oakland ace was asked if there was anything special about his coins.

"Yes," he deadpanned, "they have 'In God We Trust' on them."

Just then, Joe Cronin, president of the American League, rushed up to the precocious pitcher. Cronin has seen his league lose eight straight of these mid-season games and fall behind in the series 23-17-1. He reached into his pocket, came up with another coin and pressed into Blue's palm.

"Here's another one," said Cronin. "It says 'Liberty'."

If the American League is to be liberated from the stranglegold the Nationals have held in this game recently, Blue must play a vital role.

Last year at this time, Vida was pitching for Des Moines of the American Association. But he approached tonight's assignment with all the coolness of a seasoned veteran.

TV Boxing Is Coming Back Again

By BOB MYERS
Associated Press Sports Writer
SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP) — Weekly boxing on national television died in 1964. But the burial was a little premature because there has been a quiet resurrection.

TV-ring action has made a comeback, as can be attested by the fact that there is a show carried each week on a delayed syndicated basis by 33 stations across the country. It is the only one of its kind.

Copromoter Don Fraser of the Forum Boxing Club, in conjunction with Olympus Television, Inc., initiates the action each Saturday night, usually from the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium.

The shows are subsequently screened, after the "live" telecast in this area, from Honolulu

Plimpton Works Out With Colts

By BERT ROSENTHAL
Associated Press Sports Writer
George Plimpton, author of "Paper Lion," has found out that the Baltimore Colts are no paper tigers.

The actor-author became one of the first major casualties of the pro football training season Monday when he suffered a dislocated thumb and a bloody nose during contact work at the camp of Baltimore's Super Bowl champions.

Plimpton, scheduled to work out with the Colts for two weeks, also limped off the field after his legs took a severe beating. If he recovers within the next few weeks, he will run a series of four plays at quarterback in a preseason game against the Detroit Lions on Aug. 28.

It was his experiences with the Lions in training camp that prompted his "Paper Lion" book.

Meanwhile, Johnny Unitas, the Colts' veteran quarterback attempting a comeback after undergoing surgery April 7 for a ruptured right Achilles tendon, went through a full day's work as Baltimore began two-day practice sessions.

Unitas, under orders not to run until next month, participated with the rest of the team in calisthenics—skipping only the run-in-place exercises—and threw passes on the sidelines.

Another quarterback recuperating from an injury, Joe Namath of the New York Jets, completed three months of workouts at the practice field of the University of Alabama, his alma mater, and prepared for a trip to his hometown, Beaver Falls, Pa.

Namath, who missed the final nine games of the 1970 season after suffering a broken right wrist during a game against Baltimore, will report to the Jets' camp Sunday with the team's other veterans.

If Namath reports as scheduled Sunday, it will be the first time he will not be late for the opening of a Jet camp.

At Cleveland's training camp in Hiram, Ohio, rookie running back Larry Dierker pulled a hamstring muscle in his right leg as the Browns held their first workout. The same type of injury had sidelined Zelina during much of his college career at Ohio State.

Four players suffered heat exhaustion as the temperature reached 100 degrees at the New Orleans Saints' camp in Hattiesburg, Miss. Forced to miss the workout after suffering from the heat were wide receivers Dave Szynkowski and Val Goltman, linebacker Jess Lewis and tight end Jim Cox.

The New England Patriots, who begin training today at the University of Massachusetts, signed six veterans—defensive tackles Jim Hunt and Houston Antwine, safeties Don Webb and Art McMahon, center Jim Morris and offensive lineman Tom Funchess.

to Boston, San Diego to Buffalo. There appears to be no region the network doesn't reach.

The youngish Fraser, a graduate publicist of boxing, is associated in the venture with his friend and copromoter George Parnassus. Indirectly involved is Jack Kent Cooke, owner of the Forum.

The syndication operation is in charge of the Olympus president, George Mitchell, in conjunction with Gene Autry and Bob Reynolds of the Golden West Broadcasting Corp., whose anchor station in Hollywood, KTLA, hatches the golden eggs in the first place.

The last of the old era of TV boxing was on Sept. 11, 1964, when Dick Tiger outpointed Don Fullmer in Cleveland.

Spurs 6-2 Over Arkansas

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Wayne Garland pushed his Dixie Association record to 12-3 Monday night as he pitched Dallas-Fort Worth to a 6-2 victory over Arkansas.

The Spurs scored all six runs in the first five innings off Traveler starter Jackie Stripling. Aubrey Gatewood and Clint Stark finished the job for Arkansas and did not allow any runs.

The Travelers, however, could not overcome the Dallas-Fort Worth lead.

Arkansas' only runs came in the sixth inning on singles by Danny Napoleon and Wayne Dees.

The Travelers remained 4½ games ahead of Memphis in the Central Division. The Blues lost to Amarillo 4-2.

In other Dixie action, Shreveport defeated San Antonio 6-2, Birmingham edged Albuquerque 3-2 and Asheville at Savannah and Montgomery at Jacksonville were postponed because of rain.

'71 NASCAR Is Rematch of 1970

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) — This year's running of the Albany-Saratoga Speedway NASCAR 250 has been billed as a rematch of the 1970 contest in which Richard Petty beat Bobby Allison.

Petty won last year when Allison had to stop for fuel with just four laps to go.

The 1971 edition follows time trials tonight at the Malta track near here.

Petty, the winningest driver of all time, and Allison, who sports an unprecedented string of five consecutive wins in major NASCAR races in recent months, head a field of 41 drivers entered in the race.

Others entered include Pete Hamilton, who won the 1971 Daytona 500, and James Hylton, Cecil Gordon and Elmo Langley.

He Doesn't Underestimate Top Seeds

By TOM SEPPY
Associated Press Sports Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Cliff Richey, defending champion in the $50,000 Washington Star International Tennis Tournament, says he doesn't underestimate the top three seeds because many think they play better on grass courts.

Richey, seeded No. 5, says Wimbledon champion John Newcombe, No. 1 here, will be tougher to beat than most people realize.

"You think of John Newcombe, Stan Smith (No. 2) and Arthur Ashe (No. 3) as grass-court players more than anything else," said Richey Monday after first round matches.

"But Newcombe is really an accomplished player on clay. He's won the British and Italian hard court championships on clay."

"He's a smart player, he knows the other guys' games well," he continued. "No matter who you play, they're all good. There are about 30 guys capable of winning it, you know, 20 or 22 contract players and six or seven independent players."

"If you play one of them in the early rounds, you might be in trouble," he said.

The 24-year-old Richey had little trouble in his first-round match Monday, easily defeating Jeff Austin of Rolling Hills, Calif., a member of the UCLA intercollegiate champion team, 6-3, 6-2.

Richey's quest for the $10,000 first prize could be thwarted by Newcombe as early as the quarter-finals. The 27-year-old Australian meets Torben Ulrich of Denmark today in his first-round match.

Nutrition Short Course

As a background for more detailed study in nutrition, Sue Montgomery, Jr. Field Assistant, reviews girls participating in a nutrition short course on the "Basic 4" food groups.

Learning that nutrition can be fun and exciting was the experience of local girls enrolled in the short course sponsored by the County Extension Service. Sue Montgomery conducted this course June 24, 25, 28, and 29.

The girls attended four, two-hour sessions held in the Douglas Building. Each day one of the basic four food groups was stressed. Games, quizzes, and group participation made learning interesting. Snacks that emphasized the food group studied were prepared each day by the group.

The teen and pre-teen years are the time when good nutrition is particularly important. This course was designed to help the girls realize what foods their bodies need and why these foods are important to them. The participants will be able to make wiser food choices as a result of attending these sessions.

Wilt Not on Trading Block

By JACK STEVENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bill Sharman faces a rugged job in building the Los Angeles Lakers into a title contender and you can look for the first to make some trades in the hot Los Angeles market.

Owner Jack Kent Cooke says Wilt Chamberlain isn't in the trading block while General Manager Fred Schuler points out the obvious. "We have an abundance of good guards and we need another experienced forwardman."

Even the new coaches are a pair of former National Basketball Association guards. Sharman, 46, received a five-year pact Monday as the Lakers' head man and announced his former Boston Celtics teammate K.C. Jones Jr. will be his fulltime aide.

Jones' duties will include scouting. Formerly a star with the University of San Francisco's collegiate champions, Jones coached at Brandon and Harvard after nine seasons with the Lakers.

Owner Cooke dispatched two more men, Wilt Chamberlain, the "shot" superstar might be seen away by saying emphatically. "At this time to trade is considered for Wilt Chamberlain as well."

As for the frontcourt, Chamberlain, who has had his differences with coaches in the past, Sharman said, "I want to go down and talk with him. On certain things I'll certainly respect his judgment and I hope in certain things he'll respect mine."

Chamberlain is the star that the Lakers had missed. The night wonder law center of the championship Los Angeles Lakers.

Race Horse Had Cancer of Throat

PARIS, Ky. (AP) — A post-mortem examination of Bold Ruler, one of the greatest racehorses in history, has confirmed that the horse had cancer of the throat, the owner said.

There was nothing surprising about the finding, said a veterinarian who said he suspected cancer after the examination following the death of the 1958 Kentucky Derby winner.

Bold Ruler was suddenly stricken after he was discovered the cancer that had been treated last year had spread again.

The day-day son of the famous War Admiral, Bold Ruler was bred by the American Bloodstock Co. and was sold for $100,000 in 1955. He won 11 of his 21 races and was one of the money winners four times in his last-year race as a 4-year-old.

Bold Ruler's owner, who was an American, was a Kentucky Bloodstock Co. member. The company had a 50 percent interest in the horse.

North has bid diamonds and then hearts and East has bid spades.
East is pretty sure South has trapped himself by his Blackwood call and both his aces will be winners against the six-club contract. He is afraid the wrong lead may give South a chance to get rid of a heart loser. In any event, East is sure he does not want a spade lead.

He doubles on the theory he is not going to be redoubled. Maybe his partner will recall he did not double five diamonds. Or maybe his partner will be looking at a lot of hearts and will figure that hearts is the desired unusual lead. Besides, maybe the hand can't make on any lead.

If West opens a spade or a diamond, South will make his slam. He will be able to discard his heart on one of dummy's top diamonds and either trump his two losing spades in dummy or ruff one and set up a heart for the discard of the other.

This hand was played in the 1960 World's championship. Dr. Pierre Jais of France, who sat West, decided his partner could not be void of diamonds nor want a diamond lead, so he opened the heart.

France had stopped at five clubs at the other table, so the French use of the Lightner double helped them win the 1960 World's championship.

ARKANSAS PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION
IN THE MATTER OF ESTABLISHING EMERGENCY CURTAILMENTS OF ELECTRIC ENERGY

DOCKET NO. U-2332
ORDER

The Arkansas Public Service Commission has noted that electric energy for the people of Arkansas and the region which includes our State depends heavily upon natural gas supplies. The duration and extent of curtailment of natural gas for gas-fired electric generators are matters subject to proceedings before this Commission, the Federal Power Commission, and the Courts, none of which have determined the factual questions necessary for final rulings. However, preparation for possible shortages of electric energy cannot commence only after the possibilities become reality. The possibility of shortages makes it imperative that the electric utilities engaged in the production and distribution of electric power develop, without delay, contingency plans for overcoming any critical deficiency in supplies of electricity should they occur.

The Commission is neither announcing nor predicting power shortage; however, the potential for serious consequences exists, calling for careful planning in advance for inadequate power production. The Commission, by this Order, seeks to assist the public utilities of this State, upon whose proven ability to react in an emergency our ultimate reliance must be placed.

This Commission regards as critical any situation in which the ready supply potential of electric energy does not exceed the demand by more than five percent, as determined by management from data at power measurement and control centers and facilities of the electric utilities, interpreted in the light of management experience and judgment. The filed plans will set out systematic load curtailments or allocations among bulk energy purchasers, priority assignments of electricity among customer classifications, and all other measures which will observe the requirement of human needs above all other.

Of paramount importance to proper power conservation in a supply shortage is timely and adequate notification to customers who may or will be affected upon implementation of curtailments. Not only must those to be subjected to power curtailment be given a reasonable opportunity to protect equipment and facilities which are adversely affected by power loss, but such advance notification will afford an opportunity for public appeals and instructions for voluntary conservation of power which may, in itself, prevent or reduce curtailments. It is expected that electric utilities will make maximum possible use of all public communications media within their areas of service responsibility upon detection of an approaching shortage of their power supplies.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED:

1. Each electric utility subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission shall file with the Commission, not later than July 9, 1971, as a part of or supplement to its Service Regulations and standard Voltage Regulations, a Contingency Power Conservation and Curtailment Plan to be placed in effect and maintained at the onset and during any period where the supply of electric power and energy is inadequate to furnish the demands of all of the customers of the utility.

2. Adjunctive to each Plan, each electric utility shall file, not later than July 9, 1971, its plans and methods for preparatory notification of its customers when curtailments are impending.

3. In the event of curtailments subsequently implemented under a filed Plan, the electric utility executing any phase of its curtailment or conservation plan will as soon as practicable thereafter, report in writing to the Commission the significant details of such execution including any customer classifications curtailed, the duration and an estimate of the units of power conserved.

4. Each utility subject to this Order shall, pursuant to Ark. Stat. Ann. 73-217 (a), cause a public notice of this proceedings to be published in a newspaper with general circulation in the subject utilities' service area. The notice shall include the text of this Order and of the Contingency Power Conservation and Curtailment Plan filed by such utility pursuant to this Order. The public notice shall be published no less than ten days prior to the date set in Section 5 of this Order for petitions to intervene.

5. A public hearing is hereby set for 9:30 A.M. on July 30, 1971, in the Hearing Room of the Commission, Justice Building, Little Rock, Arkansas, to receive comments and testimony of each electric utility and any other interested person who files a petition to intervene in this proceedings on or before July 23, 1971, on all or any of the Plans filed, pursuant to this Order, with the Commission.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION
This 25th day of June, 1971.

ARKANSAS PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Filed: July 9, 1971
Authority: Order of June 25, 1971
Docket No. U-2332
Filed by: Southwest Arkansas Electric Cooperative Corporation

CONTINGENCY POWER CONSERVATION AND CURTAILMENT PLAN

SOUTHWEST ARKANSAS ELECTRIC COOPERATIVE CORPORATION
P. O. Box 1807
Texarkana, Arkansas

1. Nature of Utility - Southwest Arkansas Electric Cooperative Corporation (herein referred to as "Cooperative") is a distribution cooperative which distributes power and energy to the ultimate consumer and does not operate any generating capacity of its own.

2. Power Supplier - Section A. - The Cooperative purchases all of its power and energy from Arkansas Electric Cooperative Corporation and Arkansas Power and Light Company.

Section B. - Delivery of power and energy to the Cooperative by Arkansas Electric Cooperative Corporation is effected through the transmission facilities of Southwest Electric Power Company.

3. Nature of Loads Served by the Cooperative - The Cooperative serves consumers in the following classifications with the relative loads as shown:

Consumer Classification:

A. Residential and Farm, Number of Consumers 12,175; Percent of Kilowatt Hours 58 percent.

B. Schools, Churches, and other Public Buildings, Number of Consumers 306; Percent of Kilowatt Hours 1 percent.

C. Small Commercial requiring less than 50 KVA of transformer capacity, Number of Consumers 688; Percent of Kilowatt Hours 10 percent.

D. Large Commercial requiring 50 KVA to 350 KVA of transformer capacity, Number of Consumers 52; Percent of Kilowatt Hours 6 percent.

E. Large Commercial and industrial requiring 350 KVA to 2500 KVA of transformer capacity, Number of Consumers 7; Percent of Kilowatt Hours 10 percent.

F. Industrial requiring 2500 KVA or more of transformer capacity, Number of Consumers 1; Percent of Kilowatt Hours 15 percent.

Step 1 - Request all consumers to voluntarily discontinue:

(a) All exterior advertising, decorative, and flood lighting.

(b) All show window lighting.

(c) All interior display and showcase lighting.

(d) The use of residential and commercial electric appliances except refrigerators, freezers, ranges, water heaters, water pumps, and television or radio receivers.

(e) Nonresidential cooking and baking on electrical equipment except for the preparation and preservation of essential staple foods.

Step 2 - Request all consumers to voluntarily reduce:

(a) Elevator service to an absolute minimum.

(b) Public and domestic outdoor lighting to the absolute minimum essential for safety.

(c) Comfort air conditioning by setting thermostats at a minimum of 78 degrees temperature.

(d) Comfort heating by setting thermostats at a maximum of 65 degrees temperature for heating during waking hours and a maximum of 50 degrees temperature for heating during sleeping hours.

(e) The use of hot water heated by electricity to minimum requirements.

(f) The use of electricity for domestic and nondomestic cooking and baking to an absolute minimum.

(g) The use of television and radio receivers to the minimum necessary to receive emergency curtailment information and instructions.

(h) General lighting by 50 percent for all domestic and commercial purposes.

(i) The use of electricity for all other domestic and commercial purposes to an absolute minimum.

Step 3 - Request consumers to pumps, and other.

4. Emergency Curtailment of Electric Power Service - Section A. - The Cooperative recognizes the need for an orderly plan to curtail the use of electric power and energy in the event an inadequate supply develops from damage caused by severe weather, from fuel shortages, from civil disturbances, from a national emergency, or from any other cause beyond the control of the Cooperative. In any curtailment of electric power service, the general policy of the Cooperative shall be: (a) to prevent waste and dissipation of power; (b) to provide electric power service as needed to preserve the life, health, and safety of individual persons; (c) to provide electric power service as needed to prevent damage to property, equipment, and perishable goods; (d) to assure the continuing supply of electric power as near to normal conditions as practicable.

Section B. - In order to carry out the general policy of the Cooperative to the maximum extent practicable, the following shall be classified as essential services:

(1) Hospitals and emergency medical facilities.

(2) Police, civil defense, fire, public works, and welfare facilities.

(3) Electric and gas utility systems.

(4) Water pumping and water utility systems.

(5) Sewage disposal plants and sewage systems.

(6) Communication utilities: telephone services, radio services, telegraph services, and television services.

(7) Transportation utilities.

(8) Doctors' offices and clinics.

(9) Emergency shelters and community facilities for displaced persons.

(10) Food production, processing, storing, and distribution.

(11) Dairy farms.

(12) Ice and dry ice plants.

(13) Petroleum, gas, and solid fuels.

(14) Government offices and military installations.

(15) Plants manufacturing medical supplies, medicines, and other survival items.

Section C. - In the event the Cooperative is notified by its power supplier that electric power service is being curtailed, or in the event the curtailment of electric power service becomes necessary for some other reason, the Cooperative will follow the steps shown below in the order listed to curtail the use of electric energy to the minimum extent necessary.

Step 1 - Request all consumers to voluntarily discontinue:

(a) All exterior advertising, decorative, and flood lighting.

(b) All show window lighting.

(c) All interior display and showcase lighting.

(d) The use of residential and commercial electric appliances except refrigerators, freezers, ranges, water heaters, water pumps, and television or radio receivers.

(e) Nonresidential cooking and baking on electrical equipment except for the preparation and preservation of essential staple foods.

Step 2 - Request all consumers to voluntarily reduce:

(a) Elevator service to an absolute minimum.

(b) Public and domestic outdoor lighting to the absolute minimum essential for safety.

(c) Comfort air conditioning by setting thermostats at a minimum of 78 degrees temperature.

(d) Comfort heating by setting thermostats at a maximum of 65 degrees temperature for heating during waking hours and a maximum of 50 degrees temperature for heating during sleeping hours.

(e) The use of hot water heated by electricity to minimum requirements.

(f) The use of electricity for domestic and nondomestic cooking and baking to an absolute minimum.

I guess you get dozens of letters like mine every day, but please print mine anyway.

My mother runs my life! She tells me what to wear, what to do, what to eat, what knife to use for cutting cake, how to eat, what to think and say, how to say it, what time to go to bed, who to hang around with, when to take my pills—and not just once but over and over again, as if I were five instead of 15.

If my sister and I start talking about boys, Mom screams, "Nonsense, you're too young," and puts me down.

My dad is great, except when he's persuaded into thinking my mother's way, and then we have World War III.

My girl friend's mother is wonderful. I can TALK to her. The three of us just sit and rap and she doesn't lecture or condemn. Is it wrong to prefer talking with somebody who isn't your parent? And how can I get my mother to understand I'm—GROWING UP Dear G.U.:

Why not try getting the two parents together? Perhaps some of the tact and understanding shown by your girl friend's mother will rub off on yours—especially if your father learns that caving in is just another way of coping out.—H.

P.S. It's perfectly normal—even in well-adjusted families—for a child to choose an outside adult as a confiant, sometimes even an idol. This usually happens before age 15 (when teenagers are more apt to ask the advice of other teenagers) but for you, having an extra mother at this critical time is a great asset. (Just don't make comparisons at home—okay?)—H.

Dear Helen:

I love my folks and don't want to hurt them, but they're ruining my life.

If they see me wearing mascara, they yell, and if it runs, I'm a tramp. I smoke (not pot). You know how parents are about "honesty is the best policy." Well, if I told them, they'd kill me.

My pants can't be long or fitted, but have to look short and baggy. My friends (what few I have) all have boy friends, but not me! I'm a complete dud and it's all my parents' fault. —TREATED LIKE A THREE-YEAR-OLD

P.S. Even if you don't have a solution, Helen, I'd feel important just knowing you listened and cared. Dear TLATYO:

It's awfully easy to blame your parents for EVERYTHING, when they're only at fault part of the time. In an effort to be "popular," maybe you're pushing too hard, which not only helps the "dud" image among your friends, but also worries your folks into added restrictions.

If YOU will relax and fret less, perhaps they will too. Talking things out with another adult may help. Do you have a friend outside the family who can act as a "translator"?—H.

Dear Helen:

This fellow used to be a really great guy but he found out girls go for him, so now he is nothing but concieted. Even the girls who liked him lots are about to give up on him.

Would it be okay to send him an anonymous card saying, "When success turns a man's head, he is facing failure!"? Or something like that?—THE GIRLS

Dear Girls:

Anonymous letters are for cowards or back-biters. Moreover, a conceited fellow would figure them for "jealousy." If you can't tell him face to face, then let him learn the hard way, by our "NOs."—H.

Organized Labor Puts Blame on Pres.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Organized labor says it is taking the rap for a national economic crisis created by Nixon administration policies. "The failure of this administration to hold down inflation has created the need for a political scapegoat," S. Frank Raftery, president of the Brotherhood of Painters, told the opening session of the AFL-CIO Conference on jobs Monday.

"They are trying to pin the blame for their mistakes on workers and their unions," said AFL-CIO President George Meany.

President Nixon has openly and viciously attacked the incomes of construction workers," Raftery added. "He has found a scapegoat convenient for his banker and contractor friends. He has ignored the true culprits of inflation in the economy and in construction."

Under Nixon, Raftery said, construction unemployment is at its highest rate since 1961 while construction wages have been declining in relation to building costs.

Coming & Going
Sgt. and Mrs. David H. Perkins and daughter Darlene Michelle were house guests of their aunt, Mrs. Onzie Loudermilk.

Sgt. Perkins has just returned from Viet Nam where he spent a year in the armed services. They left Tuesday for Dallas, Texas to visit his grandmother, Mrs. Addie Hayden. They were accompanied by SP4 Larry E. Conway and Vicki Lynn Loudermilk.

Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Mack Bailey and children, Candie Shetia and Victor Charles of Searcy, Arkansas were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Dell Dennis on July 4. A barbecue was held in Mrs. Dennis' back yard.

Mrs. Davis is the niece of Mrs. Priscilla Dennis. She also visited her uncle Clayton Frierson.

Ontee Douglas and granddaughter Tina took a trailways bus to Shreveport, Louisiana July 4 to visit his daughter Gwendolyn and family. On July 5 they boarded a Delta Airlines plane to New York City to visit his older daughter Frances Heyward and family. While in New York they visited the following places: Tuesday-fished and went to Mohansic State Park, the play-land and amusement park; Wednesday, visited the bear mountain, Mohawk Valley and Bowling Alley, Thursday-toured Manhattan, the Empire State Building, crossed New York Harbor to Staten Island, Coney Island and John F. Kennedy Airport, and viewed the 747, the world's largest aircraft. Ontee returned to Shreveport by Delta Friday July 9. Tina remained in New York for an extended visit with her mother and family.

The Earnest Bookers of Hope had as recent guests their children Robert Booker of Detroit, Michigan, Ted James Booker and family of Ardmore, Oklahoma, and Demarco Simpson of Hope.

While in the state, the Bookers were entertained with a fishing trip to Milwood by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bradley and their mother, Mrs. Idell Bradley.

Crackdown on Piranha Owners

BOCA RATON, Fla. (AP) — State game officials have begun a crackdown on ownership of piranhas in an effort to keep any more of the man-eating South American fish from showing up in Florida streams.

"We're checking all pet shops and incoming shipments of tropical fish," said Vernon Ogilvie, a fisheries biologist for the Florida Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission. "It's against the law to even own a piranha, and we've decided its time to start enforcing that law."

Eight months ago, a man fishing in a canal near Fort Lauderdale landed a piranha. Startled game commission officers sped to the scene and poisoned a half-mile stretch of the canal.

"We killed every living thing in there," Ogilvie said. "We didn't find any more, so I think the piranha the fisherman caught was a solitary fish that some aquarium owner dumped in there."

Under Florida law, possession of a piranha can result in a $1,000 fine and a six-month jail term. But, Ogilvie said, anyone who owns a piranha can turn it in without fear of prosecution.

"But whatever you do, don't flush it down the toilet or throw it out in some pond," he said. "That's how unwanted fish get into our waters."

The piranha is a fairly small fish that travels in schools. It normally reaches a weight of about six pounds, but species attain eight pounds or more.

Equipped with a mouthful of razor-sharp teeth, the piranha is a voracious feeder, and there have been authenticated attacks of humans in South America.

Historian Is Married

NEW YORK (AP) — Arthur Schlesinger Jr., Pulitzer prize-winning historian and former special assistant to President John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson, has married Alexandra Ennet Allan.

An announcement Monday said they exchanged vows Friday in Schlesinger's apartment, with Judge Harold Felix of Family Court presiding.

The bride is the daughter of the late Mrs. Alston Boyd, better known as the painter Lily Cushing, and stockbroker William T. Ennet of North Tarrytown, N.Y.

Qualifications Given for Young Voters

With approximately 100,000 young people in Arkansas between the ages of eighteen and twenty-one, the task of registering these voters is enormous. Many questions have been asked and Mrs. Pat House, Hempstead County Clerk, has received a "Voter Registration Fact Sheet" from Attorney General Ray Thornton which should answer some of the more frequently asked questions and speed registration.

All persons who are qualified and properly registered may vote in any election. Qualifications state that a person must be 18 years of age or older, a United States citizen, and be mentally competent and not disqualified by conviction of a felony.

For all elections except for President and Vice-President of the United States, one must have been a resident of the state one year, of the county six months, and of the voting precinct one month prior to the election.

In the case of the election of the President and Vice-President of the United States, the only residency requirement states that a person be a resident of the state for at least 30 days prior to the election. This condition will not exist until November, 1972.

You must be registered at least 20 days immediately prior to any election in order to vote in that election.

It does not cost anything to register and you only need to register once unless you fail to vote at all during a 4 year period; you move your residence to another county or state; or you change your name.

A student must register in the county of his legal residence. Generally this is the place he considers to be his home. When a student leaves his home county to attend school, he does not thereby lose his legal residence in his home county.

According to the Arkansas Supreme Court, a student who is in a city for the sole purpose of securing an education does so without making a change of residence. It is necessary to have a bona fide intention to make that city his home permanently or for an indefinite period and not to limit it to the time necessary to get an education.

As of Monday, July 12, Mrs. House reports that 19 newly enfranchised voters have registered and encourages more to do so. It is particularly important that students who will be attending college this fall to register while in Hope this summer. You may register from 8-5 Monday - Friday at the County Clerk's office in the Courthouse. If you have any additional questions, call Mrs. Pat House at 777-2241.

All points on the equator have days and nights 12 hours long.

Dislikes Election of Judges

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Pros. Atty. Jim Guy Tucker of Little Rock says that one of the drawbacks of the judicial system is that judges and prosecuting attorneys are elected.

"One of the evils of our system... is the fact that judicial officers, judges and prosecutors are elected," Tucker said in an interview with Little Rock television station KTHV. "As long as that threat of the next election is hanging over a man's head, no matter how hard I or any other man tries to disassociate ourselves from the eventual political impact of a decision, you can't do it altogether."

Tucker said he had tried to avoid political considerations in making decisions since he has taken office.

Pryor Not For Citing CBS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. David Pryor, D-Ark., says he will vote today against citing the Columbia Broadcasting System and its president, Frank Stanton, for contempt of Congress.

The Interstate and Foreign Commerce Committee had recommended such action. Pryor said the committee's decision was "unnecessary, unwarranted and unwise."

The complaint against CBS involves its documentary, The Selling of the Pentagon.

Frigidaire May Move to Memphis

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — General Motors' Frigidaire Division, with headquarters at Dayton, Ohio, is considering moving its appliance manufacturing operations to Memphis, the Commercial Appeal reported today.

The move of the appliance plant would involve an estimated 10,000 workers.

The newspaper reported that Frigidaire had taken an option on land in Memphis, but sources at the GM division's headquarters in Dayton would say only that Frigidaire is investigating the possibility of plants outside Dayton.

The newspaper said, however, that GM executives representing the Frigidaire and Delco Electronics divisions have looked at a vacant plant in Memphis. Frigidaire now makes all its appliances in Dayton, but the high cost of labor in the appliance industry reportedly has created problems for the manufacturer. The Dayton operation normally employs about 14,000 persons, but 3,222 of them have been laid off since last November.
